

Each evening, without fail, I get a telemarketing call from SBC communication, despite my being on the Do Not Call list for over 3 months, despite calling their regional customer care center and get assurances that these phone calls would stop, despite my emailing everyone on their customer care website, and despite me talking with the supervisor's at SBC's telemarketing firm (Telespectrum Worldwide) and getting assurances from them, too, that these phone calls would stop.